

St. John the Baptist Philoptochos Society presents “Spirit of Saint George” by Garsot

Valued at $10,000. Opening Bid—$4,000

About the Artist

Born in ancient Valta Greece, inspired to draw from the age of 3 and still creating powerful, original works today, Sotirios Gardiakos, known as Garsot (pronounced Ghar-So) remains the quintessential ‘inspirational optimist’ for a more Human Earth. Spanning over half a Century, his paintings, sculptures and mixed media art evoke positive feelings, express masterful technique and showcase unlimited styles.

The result is exceptional, technically explosive artwork that is as fresh and unique as today’s ultra-competitive Art Scene. He continues creating at his West Loop Chicago Gallery and Ft. Lauderdale studio.

Your special opportunity to obtain a Garsot!

St. John the Baptist Philoptochos Society is blessed to have the original painting “Spirit of Saint George” by Garsot as one of the Silent Auction offerings at our upcoming benefit Fashion Show on Saturday, October 17, 2015 at the Wyndham Hotel.

If you would like to bid on this unique and beautiful piece of artwork, valued at $10,000, at our upcoming Silent Auction, please contact Dena Mavritsakis at 714-270-0668 by Friday, October 16.

Winning bid also receives a framing allowance and we will ship to the successful winner. Winner need not be present to win.